Subject-

Mysore Govt. 4% Loan of 1906-0

Referring to the new loan advertised of 20 lacs ~~proclaimed~~ in the Gazette Extraordinary of the 15th instant, it seems desirable that some of the funds of the Mysore Institutions now lying in the Savings Banks, may, with advantage, be invested in the Loan. The Comptroller was also talking to me on the subject yesterday.

For obtaining the needful information, I have put up a draft to the Deputy Commissioners of Districts, which I submit for approval.

Received from the Bangalore Dt. Treasury

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

READ—

Notification published with Proceedings No. 1887-95—Fl. 217, dated the 30th August 1899, announcing that until further orders deposits would be received in the Mysore Government Savings Bank without any limitation as to amount.

No. Fl. 1509—280-04-37, dated Bangalore, 15th August 1906.

Order thereon.—The receipt of deposits into Government Savings Banks without any limit as to amount, sanctioned in the above order, has led to a steady increase in the deposits with Government, which amounted on 31st December 1905, to over ninety-five lakhs of rupees. The acceptance by the Government of such heavy liabilities at call is attended with serious risk from a financial point of view, and the Government of His Highness the Maharaja have been considering the steps that should be taken to limit the growth in deposits within reasonable proportions. It has now been decided to impose an annual limit of Rs. 2,000 and an aggregate limit of Rs. 5,000 on individual Savings Bank deposits in Mysore. In future, therefore, the total amount which may be deposited by a depositor in any one official year, from the 1st July to the 30th June, inclusive, must not exceed Rs. 2,000, and the total amount which a depositor may have at his credit at any time exclusive of interest must not exceed Rs. 5,000.

Under the operation of the above order balances of individual accounts exceeding Rs. 5,000 on the date on which the orders take effect will not bear any interest, but to prevent any undue hardship to depositors and to admit of the gradual withdrawal from the Treasuries of excesses over Rs. 5,000, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja have decided that such excess should, until further notice, bear interest at 2 per cent per annum till they are wholly withdrawn.

The Government of His Highness are also able to afford an opportunity to Savings Bank Depositors having balances in excess of Rs. 5,000, of investing such excess in a new four per cent State loan to be opened.

The following Notifications will be published in the Mysore Gazette :—

I. NOTIFICATION.

No. Fl. 1510—Gen. Fin. 280 04-38, dated 15th August 1906.

It is hereby notified for general information that, with effect from the 1st October 1906, the following changes will be made in the Mysore Government Savings Banks Rules now in force :—

Rule 1, clause IV, will be altered as follows :—

"Without the sanction of the Comptroller no account will be opened for less than one rupee and no person may deposit more than Rs. 2,000 in all between any 1st July and the 30th June next following. The total amount which a depositor may have at his credit at any time, exclusive of interest for the current year, should not also exceed Rs. 5,000."

For paragraph 1 of Rule 1, clause VII, the following should be substituted :—

"From 1st October 1906 until further notice interest will be allowed upon deposits at the rate of one pie a month on every two rupees, which is equal to one anna for every twenty-four rupees, being at the rate of three and one-eighth per cent per annum. Without the sanction of the Comptroller no higher monthly interest will be allowed upon any balance than Rs. 13-0-4, being the interest upon Rs. 5,000."

Rule 10 should be altered as under :—

"10 The limit of Rs. 2,000 for a single depositor within any year may be exceeded only in the following cases :—

(1) A security deposit with a Government officer.

(2) A benevolent or quasi-public institution.

(3) A transfer from another Taluk or District Mysore Government Savings Bank, so far as money transferred is not in excess of deposits made in the current year.

In each case the reason for allowing it must be explained, in the monthly statement of deposits.

"The limit of Rs. 2,000 is to be construed strictly, withdrawals must not be deducted in applying it."

2 The Comptroller to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja will issue further instructions regarding the payment of interest on deposits in excess of Rs. 5,000 on individual accounts and the work of calculation of such interest.
